

WE'RE YOUR NEWSPAPER. WE'RE YOUR NEIGHBOR.

Your local newspaper is your best source of news about your community. It's only possible because of our people. They care deeply about where they live. They worship, volunteer and raise their families alongside you. During National Newspaper Week, we'd like to introduce you to some of the outstanding people who bring skill, passion and dedication to their work and their community every day.

ANDREA LEWIS

Employer: APG Media of Ohio, Athens
Position: Events & Marketing Director

Fun fact: Volunteers time at her kids' school for everything from altering band uniforms to manning the concession stand.

Community work: Volunteers with and helps raise funds for Friends of the Shelter Dogs in Athens.

Lewis says she takes great pride in creating the bi-monthly "Feast" section in Mirror Magazine. "Cooking is an escape for me, and it is great to be able to incorporate it into my work and contribute in a creative way to one of our projects."

GREG MEYERS

Employer: The Crescent-News, Defiance

Position: Circulation Director

Fun fact: Ran in and completed four marathons.

Community work: Secretary for Defiance Baseball Association, past league president, Boy Scout pack leader.

"The local community newspaper plays a vital role for the news and content that will not be found from other sources. We need to embrace change, yet continue to serve the public with timely, accurate information that will engage the reader for generations to come."

JENNIFER HORSTMAN

Employer: The Courier (Findlay Publishing Company)

Position: Circulation Office Manager / NIE Coordinator

Fun fact: Helps her son deliver two newspaper routes everyday.

Community work: Board Member of the Findlay Area Swim Team, Volunteer for Boy Scouts, PTO Past treasurer.

"I'm proud of the Newspaper In Education program that we have started here at The Courier. Bringing the community, teachers and students together in this unique opportunity is exciting to me. Seeing teachers use the newspaper as a 'living textbook' in their classrooms shows the community how important the newspaper is to our youth."

DAVID PUGH

Employer: Archbold Buckeye

Position: News Editor

Fun fact: Born on Groundhog's Day. Has three dogs and two cats.

Community work: Ham radio operator since 1994. Has been active with pet adoption programs.

"Being a reporter is like being given a license to be professionally curious. It's important that the community knows what's really going on."

JOURNALISM
MATTERS

NOW MORE THAN EVER

National Newspaper Week · Oct. 7-13

ONMA
Ohio News Media Association